FROM BOMBAY DREAMS TO GLOBAL DOMINANCE... JEZ BELIEVE...JEZ PEREIRA

To say that the teenaged Jez Pereira was lucky enough to be propelled to the upper echelons of the Mumbai music scene would be a lie.

It wasn't luck. It was down to talent, determination and his unique signature freestyle sound all wrapped up in one of the nicest, most modest and insightful guys you'll ever meet.

After firmly making his presence known at home Jez turned his gaze towards global success. His journey began with a move to London in 2006 where his skills, enthusiasm and ability to source an endless supply of ear-gasmic dance floor smash hits ensured his instant success and a formidable reputation to suit.

This led to a long list of main room appearances such as the Paul van Dyke 2008 album launch party, X-Press 2 at Bedrock and regular bookings for The Gallery at Ministry of Sound and with his profile growing in the UK it wasn't long before the rest of the world came knocking...

Jez is now doing insane bookings around the globe that most djs couldn't even comprehend, such as Gumball Rally after parties, Pacha67 yacht parties, a residency at the Armani Prive Club in Dubai for Fashion overdose, Fashion TV's anniversary party in Cannes during the Film Festival, Red Bull product launch parties in Amsterdam & Tokyo, headlining the Barbados Music Festival as well as Burning Man!

Jez's has performed with some of the most important names in a wide range of industries and he's been seen djing along side and back to back with the likes of Will I Am at The Arts Club, Just Be (Bushwacka) at Radio Rooftop NYE, Idris Elba at The Box, Erick Morillo at the TAO nightclub in Las Vegas and he was even caught performing alongside 4 times Grammy nominated legend, Steve "Silk" Hurley and DJ Skip. By now Jez is used to looking up at his crowd and seeing the likes of F1 driver Jensen Button or HRH

Prince Harry up in the club! All of this success has gained him mass global recognition and praise including a nomination for the “best dj” category at the prestigious London Club & Bar Awards 2014.

Despite touring around the world Jez has still been able to find the time to get in the studio and has firmed up a solid relationship with the mighty S&S Records, Chicago. They asked him to remix Steve “Silk” Hurley’s global No1 smash hit, Jack Your Body, which Jez co-wrote with Elijah Collins. As if this wasn’t enough, they even asked him to remix the late and very very great Frankie Knuckles signature track, Baby Wants To Ride! Definitely two of Jez’s biggest honors in his production career to date.

Any dj could easily lose himself in all of the glitz and the glamour but throughout this incredible journey Jez has managed to remain humble and gracious and never misses an opportunity to put something back in to the world. He is on a mission to spread his personal message of perseverance, self-belief and positivity through his “Jez Believe” project.

The list of achievements both on and off the dance floor goes on and on but we feel it’s time you check out what all the hype is about. As he often says himself, “Let the music do the talking.”

JEZ THE GLOBE-TROTTER

Jez's global domination continued to spread in 2013. His floor shaking sets were heard in multiple exotic locations around the world which included Italy, India, Ibiza & Dubai not to mention his return to End Club in Bogota, Colombia for a consecutive third year. He was also asked to play for the industry elites at Fashion TV's anniversary party in Cannes during the Cannes Film Festival.

Oh and just in case you thought it was a mirage from afar, no, it was actually Jez Pereira causing a dance-induced sand storm while ripping up the Nevada desert at the World's coolest festival - Burningman!

JEZ BELIEVE

Jez continued to spread his message of perseverance, self-belief and positivity through his “Jez Believe” project. He kicked it off with a visit to an East London secondary school where he gave motivational talks to the ambitious and captivated students who found the talks encouraging and inspiring. This was followed by a visit to the British Foreign Office for a networking event where Jez was able to convince others to join and fight for this just cause.

2014-2015 looks set to be equally monumental, kicking off with London Fashion week and a headlining gig for Fashion Icon Julien Macdonald's prestigious afterparty.

An exclusive private booking in Marrakesh saw Jez whisked off by private jet to the outlandishly lavish surroundings of the Four Seasons for a long weekend show-casing his unique sound and talent.

The jet-setting continues with an up-coming tour of India's top clubs and further bookings in Dubai, Ibiza, France and Colombia. All this whilst still finding time to re-mix big name tracks for S&S Records....
